Vander Vlugt, Joanna (Szasz)	CYBER GREETINGS: Hello Class of '84. When I think of 1984 and being in high school, I think of Dickens, "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times." I wasn't involved in clubs or sports, but I have good memories. Ms. Anaka (editors note: Ms. Anaka is now Mrs. McNamee – she is also Lorilei Plecas's cousin & god-mother) was an awesome English teacher & nurtured my desire to become a writer. I am still writing. I have a few articles published & a few short stories and novels sitting on publishers' desks. But to be able to afford all that paper & print cartridges, let alone the latest clothes for my two teenage daughters, I still have to keep a day job. I work as an Executive Assistant for the Police Complaint Commissioner in Victoria. 20 years may have passed, but it doesn't feel like it, & I wonder where the time has gone, but I only have to look at my two daughters, the oldest one being 16, to see the passage of time. I have lived in Calgary for 15 years & for the past 13 have worked for Senator Dan Hays, who is presently the Speaker of the Senate. Still With Us

(Makah Indian Poem)

Do not stand by my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow;
I am a diamond glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain;
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awake in the morning hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft star shine at night.
Do not stand by my grave and cry.
I am not there...I DID NOT DIE.
